One Day Classes

Friday (6 pm – 10 pm)

010 CPR/AED

P0001

In this course, students will learn how to recognize a life-threatening emergency, how to provide basic life support and what to do in case of an airway obstruction or choking. This course meets the requirements for FRS 1029 in the KCTCS Fire/Rescue Science Technology AAS Degree Program.

Cards will be provided for those that choose to purchase them at $8.00 per card.

Friday (1:00 pm – 10 pm)

020 Flashover Recognition & Survival

FC40000 (with prop & live fire)

This 8 hour course is designed to train firefighters to recognize the signs, and to escape an impending Flashover. A flashover situation is a very serious life threatening event that could result in injury and/or loss of life to firefighters who encounter this dynamic fire situation. Students will be taught how to read smoke, utilize thermal imaging devices, as well as basic instincts to detect and escape a Flashover. This course is a mixture of classroom/lecture, as well as hands-on training utilizing a live-fire Flashover Recognition training prop.

Prerequisite: Completion of NFPA 1403 required components prior to enrolling; Live Fire Course Competency Form is required.

OSHA 1910.134 (No Facial Hair impeding the seal of the facepiece) WILL be enforced by SFRT Instructors for anyone participating in the live burn.

Friday (6 pm – 10 pm)

030 Instructor Methodology

BB0000

This class, is designed for company officers and other fire or rescue service personnel with the responsibility of conducting periodic company level or small unit training. It introduces the participant to basic instructional concepts and techniques. Emphasis is on teaching principles and techniques applicable to fire and rescue service training and includes effective communication, teaching from lesson plans and methods of instruction, with emphasis on skills training and adult learning.

Prerequisite: Certified Fire Instructor
